

Kristy Lundström appointed as new Head of School at SSB

Kristy Lundström will succeed Torbjörn Åberg as Head of the Scandinavian School of Brussels. She will take up her new position on August 1st 2010. For a temporary period, Kristy will also keep her existing position as Responsible for Compulsory at SSB.

Kristy is a teacher of Mathematics and Computer Science and has a Master's Degree in International Education Management and Administration from the University of Stockholm. Kristy is an experienced teacher with demonstrated strengths in matters of curriculum, pedagogy and student welfare. She possesses strong leadership skills and has already an excellent understanding of our school's mission.

Kristy Lundström was selected among more than 50 candidates and the School Board would like to thank all those who have expressed an interest in this position.

Waterloo May 25th 2010

SSB School Board